Purpose and Effect of the Application

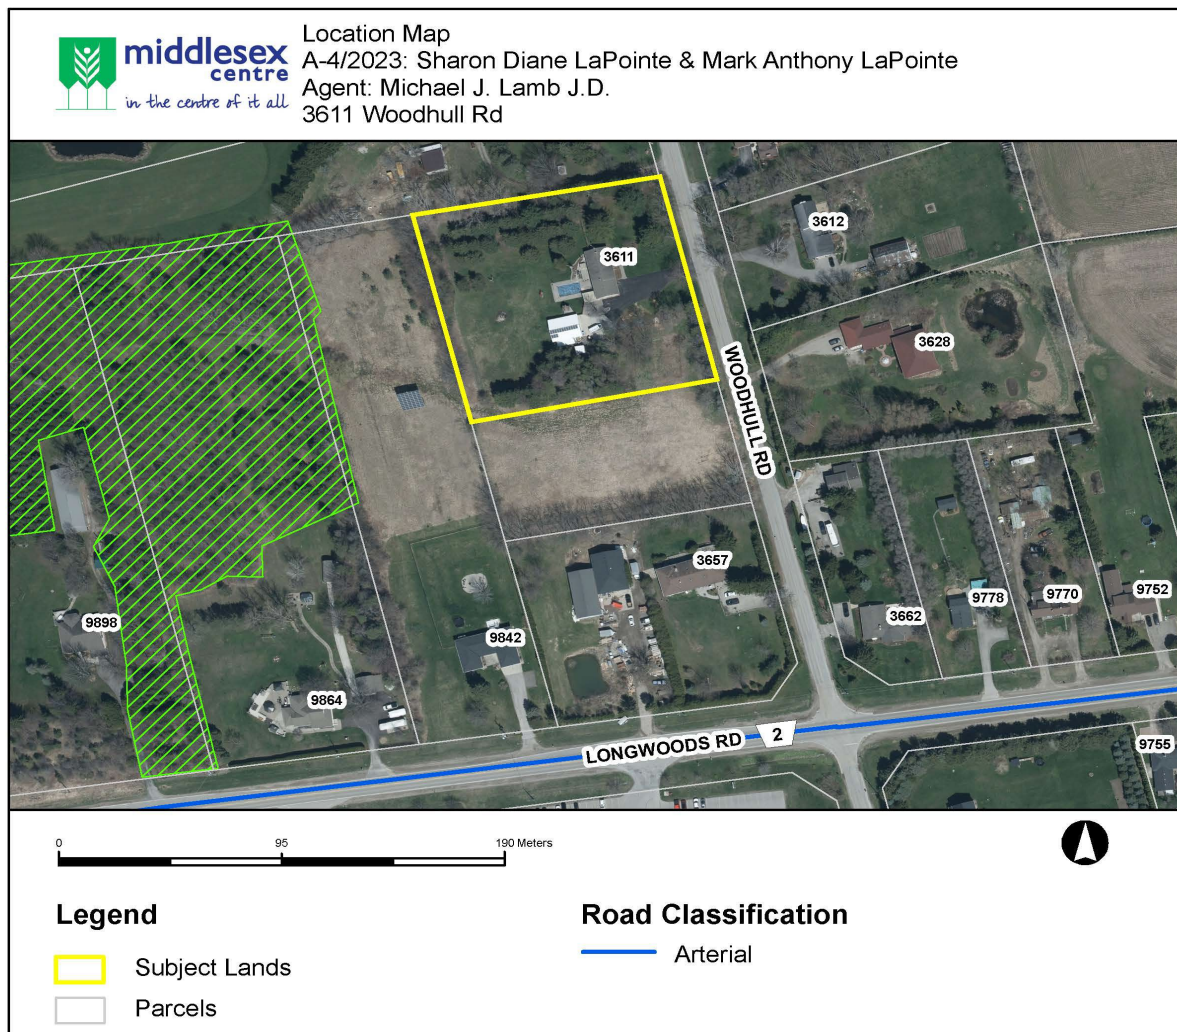

The Municipality is seeking input on a development application within 60 metres of your property. The purpose and effect of the Application for Minor Variance is to seek relief from the Middlesex Centre Comprehensive Zoning By-law 2005-005 as it relates to the minimum frontage and area requirement for a lot in the Agricultural (A1) Zone. As an undersized legal non-complying lot, the owner is seeking to reduce the lot area to a frontage of 91.4 metres (299 feet), whereas the by-law requires a frontage of 300 metres (984 feet), and to reduce the minimum lot area to 0.97 hectare (2.4 acres), whereas the Zoning By-law requires a minimum area of 40 hectares (99 acres). The variance is the result of provisionally approved consent application B-23-2021, which represents a minor boundary adjustment. The effect of the proposal is to legally recognize the undersized nature of the agricultural lot as a result of the aforementioned consent application.
